Rising Stars 2019 Programme

As part of the Institute of Water's ongoing work to nurture rising talent in the water sector, we're looking to reward eight members who have shown both the potential and an appetite to progress in the water industry.

The Institute of Water is now looking for applications for the 2019 Rising Stars programme. You must be a member of the Institute of Water at the time of applying.

If selected you will benefit from a programme of initiatives designed to encourage and assist your development and raise your profile within the industry:

- You will attend the Utility Week Awards Dinner 2018 which will take place on 10th December 2018, at the Grosvenor House Hotel in London, accompanied by two senior water industry professionals who will ensure you get the most from the opportunity. This black tie event comprises a drinks reception, dinner, cabaret, and disco, and is the industry's "Christmas party" - a great opportunity to join the great and good as they celebrate the year's achievements.
- You will be invited to attend a master class hosted by our President, during which you will be free to ask your own questions about the real experience of leading a major company and any tips they may have for management success.
- You will be featured on the Institute of Water website through a short profile which looks at your career to date and thoughts about your future and the industry going forward.
- You will be given a complimentary place at the International Water Association UK Young Water Professionals Conference 2019.
- You will be given a complimentary place at the Institute of Water Annual Conference 2019 in Northern Ireland and a complimentary seat at our prestigious President's Dinner and Awards.
- You will be invited to 'meet the regulators' of the UK Water Industry and speak to them regarding their perspective of the industry and how it operates.
- You will be offered complimentary places at some of the water industry's major conferences and events in association with our partners.
- You will be given the opportunity to write for the Institute of Water quarterly magazine.
- You will be given the opportunity to get to know your local area committee and organise a local area events.

Application deadline is Friday 21 September 2018. If successful, you may be invited to a short interview with up to three members of your local Area Committee.

Please remember you will need to obtain the support of your employer.
